

Girl Scout Camp Louise open house May 17

The Girl Scouts of Penn's Woods will hold an open house at Camp Louise on May 17 from 12 noon until 5 p.m.

Camp Louise is situated on 380 acres of scenic woods and lakes just outside of Berwick. Camp sessions begin at the end of June and registrations for scouts and non-scouts are now being accepted.

The open house is an opportunity for girls and their families and friends to see the grounds and meet some of the staff, which includes trained counselors from the United States and around the world. This year's Share The Adventure theme features traditional camp favorites like hiking, swimming, boating and crafts, as well as progressive programs to spark the interests and imaginations of 1st century girls.

For many girls, a week at camp is made possible by the generosity of others. Families and friends can purchase gift certificates for camp sessions or for use at the camp Trading Post in any denomination they wish. Gift certificates are available at the Wilkes-Barre Service Center Sales Shop desk.

Registration for Share The Adventure: Summer 2003 Camp Programs at Camp Louise is now open for all Girl Scouts and non-scouts. Representatives from the Girl Scouts of Penn's Woods Council will be at the WBRE Kids Expo scheduled for May 3 and 4 at the Wyoming Valley.

Camp Louise is fully accredited by the American Camping Association and meets or exceeds Girl Scouts of the USA standards.

For more information about Camp Louise and Girl Scouting, or to obtain a camp brochure, contact the Girl Scouts of Penn's Woods Council Wilkes-Barre Service Center by phone at 829-2631 or 1-800-432-9786; by email at camplouise@yahoo.com, or visit the Penn's Woods' website at www.pennswoodsgirlscouts.org and click on Camp Info.
