

'Everything For You'

Fashion was in the spotlight when Lake-Lehman High School held its Junior-Senior Prom May 16 at Genetti's Hotel and Convention Center in Wilkes-Barre. Students turned out for the gala event sporting an amazing array of styles and colors as they enjoyed the meal and shared the dance floor.

Checking it twice, chaperones Bonnie Gregory, Lee Sikora and Mimi Koch matched attendance with reservations.

Ryan Halliday and Richelle Wesley discussed the finer points of prom night.

The mirrored ceiling reflected dancers, one doing double duty on a cell phone.

Nancy Schweizer looked as if she might have stopped in after leaving Tara for the evening.

Gowns came in all styles and colors.

Ainsley MacDougall was reflected in the mirror as she applied a final touch of lip gloss.

King Matthew Ide positioned a crown on the queen, Amy Hartman.

Andrew Coombs and Casey Horvath, in foreground, shared a slow dance. Don Murray and Laura Matsel were in the background.
