 There will be special music at each service during the summer. Rev. Michael A. Bealla is pastor.

Habitat honors Bradys

The Wyoming Valley Habitat for Humanity Board of Directors held its second Appreciation Breakfast at College Misericordia May 10 to thank the churches, businesses, organizations and the individual volunteers for their contributions over the past year.

The Herm Shiplett Volunteer Award, given annually, was presented by Art Thompson a regular site volunteer, to Jim and Essie Brady, Habitat's 'Dynamic Duo.' The Bradys, residents of Center Moreland, have shown extraordinary dedication and commitment to the mission of WVHFH, while working on the building site and as WVHFH Board Members. In photo above Art Thompson along with Joyce Shiplett present the Herm Shiplett Volunteer Award to the Bradys.

Postal workers' drive nets two tons of food

On Saturday, May 10, postal workers collected non-perishable food items along their routes in the Back Mountain and delivered two tons of food to the pantry at the Trucksville United Methodist Church. Volunteers from various churches in the Back Mountain worked all afternoon to offload the large boxes of food from the delivery trucks.

Dallas Rotary hosts group from Taiwan

The Dallas Rotary Club recently hosted participants of the Group Study Exchange (GSE) Program from Taiwan.

The GSE program is a cultural and vocational exchange opportunity for young business and professional men and women between the ages of 25 and 40 in their initial years of professional life.

The program is designed to develop professional and leadership skills among young people to better prepare them to address the needs of their communities and an increasingly global workplace.

GSE participants follow an extensive and rigorous program of international travel and participatory activities involving vocational activities, cultural experiences, fellowship opportunities and Rotarian involvement. Since 1965 the Rotary sponsored GSE program has provided inspiring vocational, educational and cultural experiences for close to 40,000 men and women.

At the conclusion of the GSE team's visit in this area, the Dallas Rotary Club hosted a dinner in their honor at the Castle Inn in Dallas. Other local Rotary Clubs from Kingston, Nanticoke, Plymouth, Wilkes-Barre, Mountaintop, Pittston, Plains and Wyoming joined in the festivities.
