Local dancers to take part in 20th anniversary gala

"Memories" the Joan Harris Centre's twentieth anniversary gala will be presented Friday June 13 and Saturday June 14 at the F.M. Kirby Center in Wilkes-Barre. Nearly 200 dancers from Back Mountain communities will be taking part in the festivities.

Twelve instructors have researched the hundreds of performances the studio has produced over the past 20 years and chosen works that represent each part of the centre's development. Designed to be a walk, or should we say a dance down memory lane, every piece to be showcased was choreographed and staged in a previous show. Classic children routines and even some obvious throwback numbers to the '80s will join large production numbers that have not been seen in over a decade.

The lobby of the Kirby Center will be transformed into a walk-through time capsule with photos, posters, letters and memorabilia from the past 20 years. The audience will be treated to live music by the popular local band Long Time Coming before the show and during intermission. To complete the gala, there will be a reception at the Ramada Hotel on public square after the Friday night and Saturday night performances for the dancers and the audience members to gather and exchange memories. The public is invited to all these events with a special invitation to alumni of the school to attend the shows and even to join their fellow dancers on the stage for the show's finale.

"Memories" is scheduled for three performances, Friday June 13 at 6:30 p.m. and Saturday June 14 at 1:30 p.m. and 6 p.m. Tickets are $12 and $15 and are available at both campuses of the Joan Harris Centre or can be purchased the day of the event. For information call 674-3699 or visit the school's home on the web at www.joanharrisdancers.com

Northeast Fair awarded Agricultural Fair status

The Northeast Fair, sponsored by the Pittston Township Volunteer firefighters, has been recognized by the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture as Pennsylvania's newest Agricultural Fair.

At least 15 of the possible 24 departments which come under the Pennsylvania Agricultural Fair Program will be introduced at this year's fair, which will be held from June 24 to 29. Within each department there will be numerous classes of exhibits and competitive events. Winners will receive cash prizes, ribbons or trophies, depending upon the event, all in accordance with Pennsylvania Agricultural Fair Program rules & regulations. Some first place winners can proceed to competition at the 2004 Pennsylvania Farm Show, where they will compete with other Pennsylvania Agricultural Fair first place winners for the title of "Best in Pennsylvania" in their respective department and class.

Entries will be accepted until the date of judging. For information about the fair competitions and an entry form, go the www.northeastfair.com.

This years Northeast Fair will be held from Tuesday, June 24 to Sunday, June 29 at the new 26-acre fairgrounds in the Grimes Industrial Park, located off Suscon Road in Pittston Township.

Tell our advertisers you saw them in The Dallas Post. They'll appreciate it, and so will we.

When is the best time to think about air conditioning?
Answer: Before hot weather arrives!
THE PROFESSIONALS at C.W. SCHULTZ will analyze your needs and recommend options - additions to your present system; a complete central A/C system; or ductless air conditioning.
