A silent auction will be one of the many events at Huntsville Days

Huntsville Days at Huntsville Christian Church

The Huntsville Christian Church will celebrate "Huntsville Days" August 8 and 10 at the church, located one block west of the Huntsville Dam in Dallas. The event commemorates the history of the community of Huntsville.

The activities will begin Friday, August 8 with a fellowship dinner to be shared with the Huntsville Methodist Church at 6 p.m. Following the dinner, there will be a G.O.D. (Gifts on Display) program which will highlight the talents of various members of both churches.

On Saturday, August 9, the activities will begin at noon with historical wagon rides around the Huntsville area. Coinciding with the wagon rides, there will be an ice cream social with ice cream and homemade pie for sale on the grounds of the Huntsville Methodist Church. Other activities planned for the day include a Childrens' auction, old fashioned games, Silent auction featuring donated baskets of items from area businesses, and a country auction which will feature several homemade craft items.

Also on tap is an apple pie baking contest with guest judges Charlie Hayes (camera man from WBRE-TV and Chef John Hudak from the Huntsville Golf Club.

A chicken barbecue will be held Saturday from 4-6 p.m. You may call 696-3958 or 675-0611 for tickets.

Twice Blessed, the praise band from the Huntsville Christian Church will perform as well as Rufus, a Christian Rock band which was enjoyed by the teens and young people especially at last years' celebration of Huntsville Days.

On Sunday, August 10, a joint worship service will be held at the Huntsville Christian church at 10 a.m. followed by a fellowship hour.

The public is invited to attend the activities. For more information, call 675-0611.
