FREDERICK KRISPIN

Heavy equipment operator

Frederick Richard Krispin, 44, of Church Road, Dallas, died Thursday August 7, 2003 at Wilkes-Barre General Hospital.

Born March 13, 1959, in Kingston, he was a son of Leonard and Alice (Romanowski) Krispin. He graduated from Dallas High School. He worked as a heavy equipment operator. He was a member of St. Francis Cabrini Church, Carverton, Kingston Township; Third Degree Knight of the Knights of Columbus, Luzerne; and the Operating Engineers.

Surviving in addition to his parents are his wife, the former Jayne Kundrat; son, Freddy, at home; daughter, Suzanne, at home; brothers, Leonard Jr., Dallas; James, Shavertown, Kingston Township; Daniel, Tunkhannock; Robert, Exeter; sisters, Pamela Drugotch, Perkaspie; Judy Coslett, Kingston; and several nieces and nephews.

DR. FRANK BORIS

Prominent doctor and Shavertown resident

Dr. Frank L. Boris III of Shavertown, Kingston Township, died Thursday August 7, 2003 at home after a courageous battle with cancer. His wife is the former Susan Cotter.

Born in Bermuda, he was the son of Mrs. Laverne Boris of Harveys Lake and the late Dr. Frank L. Boris Jr. He grew up in Mountain Top. He graduated from Wyoming Seminary, Villanova University and Temple University School of Dentistry. Following graduation from Temple, Dr. Boris served on the dental school's clinical faculty. In 1976, he entered private practice in Kingston.

In 1997, Dr. Boris achieved board certification from the American Board of General Dentistry. At the time of his selection, he was one of only 327 dentists in the United States to hold that certification. In 2000, he was named to the board of directors of the ABGD.

Team dentist for the Wilkes-Barre Scranton Penguins since their inception, he was a member of the Academy for Sports Dentistry, a national organization dedicated to the prevention and treatment of sports-related dental injuries.

He also held a mastership in the Academy of General Dentistry. He was a member of the Luzerne County Dental Society and the Pennsylvania Dental Society.

In 1999, the Pennsylvania State Board of Dentistry ruled in his favor after he waged a three-year battle to keep patients records out of the hands of insurers.

In 1998, First Baptist Church in Kingston presented Dr. Boris with its Outstanding Service Award for his work on behalf of victims of domestic violence.

He was a member of St. Therese's Church, Shavertown.

Surviving in addition to his wife and mother, are his daughters, Lindsay, Allison and Caroline; and aunts, uncles and cousins.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society, St. Therese's Church Building Fund or to the Victim's Resource Center of Wilkes-Barre.
