Contra Dance features Curt Osgood & Friends

The Chicory House and the Folklore Society features music of Curt Osgood & Friends at a New England Contra Dance on Saturday September 6, at 8 p.m. The dance is held at the St. Therese's Church, Pioneer Avenue at Davis street in Shavertown. No partner or previous experience is necessary, and all dances are taught and called.

Curt Osgood has been involved with folk music for over 30 years. He has worked for numerous coffee-house organizations throughout New York state, and currently is coordinator for the hammered dulcimer section of the Cranberry Dulcimer Gathering in Binghamton. He has appeared at contra-dance venues, coffee-houses and with festival-dance bands throughout the state and plays guitar and banjo as well.

The Chicory house is an all-volunteer nonprofit coffeehouse, sponsoring folk music and dance in the Wyoming Valley. Admission is $6 for adults and $15 for families. Dancers are asked to wear soft-soled shoes and may bring a snack to share at intermission. For information, call 333-4007.
