Choral Society seeks aspiring singers

The College Misericordia Choral Society, directed by Dr. John Curtis, is currently accepting new members for the fall semester. This 50-voice chorus made up of students, faculty, and staff of the college and members of the community has developed an outstanding reputation for bringing high quality music to the Wyoming Valley for the past 10 years.

This season the chorus will be performing the beautiful "Laud to the Nativity" by the Italian composer Ottorino Respighi with professional orchestra and soloists. Carols from around Europe will round out the Christmas program, including music Dr. Curtis brought back from a recent trip to the Czech Republic. In addition, there will be an opportunity for members to join a 200-voice choir in a performance of the Mozart Requiem with the Northeastern Pennsylvania Philharmonic Orchestra in November.

Rehearsals are Tuesday evenings, 7-9:30 p.m. in the Kennedy Lounge in the Banks Center on the campus of College Misericordia. All are welcome without audition. New members will be accepted until September 9.

For more information, call Dr. Curtis at 674-6739 or e-mail to jcurtis@misericordia.edu.

"The Hughes Cancer Center is doing things most cancer centers can't do."

Julie was diagnosed with breast cancer and had received conventional radiation at another cancer center.

"I knew I needed IMRT for my breast cancer and I was amazed to find I could get it in East Stroudsburg."

A national leader in the treatment of cancer, The Hughes Cancer Center has been offering IMRT for 3 years—longer than any other cancer center in Pennsylvania.

SmartBeam™ IMRT enables radiation so accurate, those previously treated with conventional radiation can oftentimes be re-treated with IMRT.

"My lungs and heart were protected more with IMRT than from conventional radiation offered at most centers. That put my mind at ease."

Julie... cancer-free.
