

First day at Sem

"First Grade Is A Picnic" was the hallway message greeting new and returning students to Jessie Anzalone's and Sally Sprankle's classrooms at Wyoming Seminary Lower School. Students will spend their first-grade year learning about sea life, castles and dragons while also learning the three R's. Pictured on the second day of school are, from left: Malcolm Lumia and Courtney McCarthy, both of Dallas.

Two students from Lake Lehman High School ranked among the top 15 in their division at the National History Day competition held in June at the University of Maryland. Jared Salla earned a 10th place finish with his Senior Individual Exhibit presentation entitled "Asking a Pocketful of Rights from the Purse of Responsibility: The 1902 Anthracite Coal Strike." Jared is currently majoring in history at Wilkes University and hopes to become a high school history teacher upon graduation. John Yamrick earned a 12th place finish in the Senior Individual Paper division of the competition. The title of his paper was, "The Great Anthracite Coal Strike of 1902: Rights Dictated and Rights Denied." The Lake-Lehman High School History Day team was moderated by John Comitz.

Lake-Lehman Back-to-School Night

Lake-Lehman Junior-High School's 2003 Back to School Night will be held Monday, September 15 from 6:30-8:30 p.m. Parents will follow their child's schedule which will be divided into eight-8 minute intervals, beginning promptly at 6:30 p.m. with their home room and three (3) minutes placed between each class to allow for travel. Parents are urged to attend this informational night. This will enable parents to see what their child's curriculum will be for the coming school year.
