Hall of Fame inductions at Misericordia

DALLAS TWP. — College Misericordia will induct its first class into its Athletics Hall of Fame as part of homecoming activities Saturday.

The class of six honorees will be introduced at halftime of the men's soccer game with Wesley and the induction ceremony will follow in the Anderson Center.

Anderson was inducted as a contributor in recognition of his support to the school's athletics during the past 13 years. Among the many projects at Misericordia that bear the Anderson name are: Anderson Fields for Soccer and Softball, the Anderson Sports-Health Center and the Anderson Outdoor Athletic Complex.

Holdredge was elected for her stellar swimming career. She was the school's first NCAA qualifier as a junior and became Misericordia's first NCAA All-American in the 100 breaststroke in 1997. She held 10 school records upon graduation and continues to hold four records. She has served as Misericordia's assistant swim coach for six years.

Lacy was a basketball standout who ranks second on the school's all-time scoring list with 1,171 points. She compiled this total in 43 games while playing in an era prior to the three-pointer and still holds the school record of 27.5 points per game for her career.

McGinty was elected as an administrator after serving as athletic director/moderator for 25 years. She pioneered women's athletics while presiding over the evolution of Misericordia varsity sports virtually from inception of the modern era. She received the Catherine McAuley Medal in 1987 for 50 years of service to Misericordia.

Moeller was a men's basketball standout and became the first player in the program's history to score 1,000 career points. Playing in the era before the three-pointer, he ended his career as the all-time leading scorer at Misericordia and is currently third with 1,558.

Slocum has served as Misericordia's softball coach for 23 seasons, compiling a career record of 487-224. She has never suffered a losing season. She enjoyed 13 seasons of 20 wins or more, including six with 30-plus victories, and she ranked sixth among active Division III coaches in victories entering the 2003 season. Her teams have won four Pennsylvania Athletic Conference championships and two ECAC titles in addition to five consecutive PAC runners-up finishes.
