King's College to exhibit works of Angelique Prevost

Angelique Prevost is inspired by the beauty around her, in the loveliness of everyday things and places. Using oils and gouache and watercolors and pastels, she captures that beauty in her art. The recent work of Angelique Prevost will be on view at the King's College Widmann Gallery in the Sheehy-Farmer Campus Center from Oct. 2 through Oct. 30.

Two receptions for the artist will be held on the day of the show's opening at 3:30-4 p.m. and 7-9 p.m. Prevost, after a brief talk at 4 p.m. will answer questions from those attending; and at 8 p.m. will present a gallery talk. The public is invited to both events.

Prevost, a resident of Tunkhannock, has exhibited her work locally at a number of local venues including the regional art shows of the The Endless Mountain Council of the Arts, En Plein Air Society, and at the Morgan Gallery in Blakeslee.

The exhibition is free and open to the public from Oct. 2 through Oct. 30. Gallery hours: Mon., Thur., and Fri., 10-4; Tue., Wed., 10-8., Sat. and Sun., 1-4 p.m. The Widmann Gallery, Sheehy-Farmer Campus Center, is located between North Franklin and North Main streets. For more information on see the Experiencing the Arts Calendar at www.kings.edu.
