The curtain opens on Cybele, lost in the dark woods, calling plaintively for rescue as wolves prowl closer and closer ... All of a sudden, "No, no, no!" rings out from the back of the theater and a disgruntled, dictatorial director barges down the aisle, furious at the actress, the cast, and the entire crew! He commands, "No one leaves the theater until this production is beaten into shape." The abused and beleaguered cast and crew are forced to comply.

Enter two representatives from the OSHA "theatre division" — OSHAT. The new government agency charges the director with "jeopardizing the emotional safety" of the cast and crew. Bob, who had been accustomed to using his venomous tongue at will suddenly has to "make nice" or have the production shut down. Then problems avalanche: the show's horse looks like a mutated camel; the lead gets a rampant case of the giggles; the understudy doesn't know her lines; disaster follows disaster, and Bob isn't even allowed to yell. This Vermont One Act Play Contest Winner was a real hit with judges. "The show ... was a comedic joy from beginning to end," they said.

Pineno said it has been a challenge to mount the production in only five weeks.

This Lake-Lehman Theater Production opens Friday, October 3 at 7:30 p.m. and will be presented again on Saturday, October 4 at 7:30 p.m. in the Walsh Auditorium at College Misericordia in Dallas. The Lake-Lehman theater is currently under renovation. MTV will be taping for the show "Made" and you could be part of the audience. Admission is $5 for adults and $3 for students.

For more information or for advance tickets call the director, Jonathan Pineno, at 675-7458 extension 4504.

Kingston Twp. sign ordinance

Kingston Township Ordinance 2003-7 requires that an Application for Permit for Political Signs is on file at the Kingston Township zoning office. Political signs shall not exceed four (4) square feet (576 square inches) in area and such signs shall not be attached to fences, trees, utility poles or the like. Also they should not be placed closer than five (5) feet to any Kingston Township owned property. They are not to be erected earlier than thirty (30) days prior to an election. The signs are to be removed no later than 10 days after the election, after which time, signs will be collected and disposed of by the township.

This year, signs should not be placed out earlier than October 5.

thracite Scenic Trails Association, said last week that much headway has been made in acquiring right-of-way for the trail. However, she also reported that a $500,000 Pennsylvania Department of Transportation grant hinges on being able to acquire 12 more easements and deeds needed to complete a span from Luzerne to College Misericordia.

The 800-foot section behind Newell's would connect two pieces that have been obtained by the trail association.

Newell said it would be helpful if the council could present plans for how they intend to build the trail. He has concerns about how the engineering could affect his property.

"They don't have any plans. They're talking about putting in a wall, but there's no
