PASTOR'S CORNER

By Rev. W. James Pall
Huntsville United Methodist Church

Preaching isn't just words from a pulpit

Matthew 5:14-16: "You are the light of the world, etc."

A significant part of my life (my calling) is preaching. Some people even address me that way. "Hey, Preach (er)!" In a lighthearted moment I once paraphrased a piece of rhyming tough guy movie dialogue: "James's the name .. preaching's my game."

According to scripture, it's way more than a game. "Woe unto me if I preach not the gospel (of Jesus Christ)." (I Corinthians 9:16) This is clearly the position of Paul and every pastor that I know loves to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ.

But how about you? Did you ever hear the saying, "You are the only sermon that some people will hear today." This poem makes clear what is meant:

Men read and admire the Gospel of Christ
With his love so unfailing and true
But what do they say and what do they think
Of the Gospel according to you?

You are writing each day a letter to men —
Take care that the writing is true
'Tis the only Gospel that some men will read
The Gospel according to you.

Not all life-changing moments occur while seated in front of a pulpit occupied by an eloquent preacher (.. not with the wisdom of words." I Corinthians 1:17) You can be at work, a meal or in transit. Jesus called his disciples together and gave them power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases. And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick. (Luke 9:1,2)

Preaching is a bigger obligation than just coming up with the right words and speaking them to others. How you live your life can be a source of inspiration to others. One author tells of having a rotten day. Getting onto a subway did not improve his mood. Something brushed against him, cooing. Looking up, the irritated passenger saw a baby grabbing for him, looking for a little baby interaction. The unhappy man tried scowling. This only amused the baby and she or he only tried harder to get the man's attention. Soon there was a marathon meeting of the eyes and funny faces and goosing and cooing noises.

By the time the man left the subway he confesses that he felt very different about himself. The baby provided inspiration that a book or sermon may not have accomplished, certainly not as quickly. The unconditional love expressed to him, understood by many to be grace, lifted him up beyond his own "me-centered" focus.

We are instruments, all of us, meant to convey God's message of love and salvation. We have awesome potential. We are each a sermon or gospel. Who is "reading" you? Who is listening as they observe your life? Don't waste the potential. More importantly, don't waste the potential of God to speak through your life.
