

DALLAS HIGH SCHOOL Homecoming 2003

Better late getting Home than never

Dallas High School postponed its Homecoming celebration from Saturday to Monday last weekend, but that didn't dampen the enthusiasm of students and parents who made it to Monday's game against Crestwood.

The homecoming dance went off on schedule Saturday night, but members of the court and eventual Homecoming Queen Whitney Adams still made an appearance.

POST PHOTOS BY JIM PHILLIPS

The Homecoming Court, from left: Ashleigh King and Eric Baltimore; Tammy Kunkle and Eric Higman; Sara Stredney and Josh Christian; Stephanie Yocum and Phil Miller; Whitney Adams and Eric Kyle.

Jess Kostrzewski and Heather Harbester bundled up against the chill.

From left, Joshua McEntee, Morgan Decker, Brittani Giampetro, Alyssa McEntee, Alexa Decker and Kris White took in the game and homecoming ceremony.

Principal Frank Galicki posed with Whitney Adams, Homecoming Queen, and her escort, Eric Kyle.

Principal Frank Galicki placed a crown on runner-up Ashleigh King.

Casey Scafella, Ashleigh Napierkowski and Michelle Makarewicz watched the action from the stands.