

Dallas 'C team' retains Southern Division champship capturing the Southern Division conference title for the second straight year in he Greater Pittston Football Conference. Led by head coach Dennis Cleaves the team adanced to the playoffs and a possible Super Bowl game. Members of the team are, from left, first row: Cody Cleaves, Joseph Cembrock, Logan BulIock, Joraan Multen, Domi Nick Evans, Kohner Rice.
Second row: Donnie Behm, Brian McDonnell, FJ. Costantino, Eric Ringsdorf, Patrick ConGar, Chase Benson, Johtsma, Brett Wanek, David Gallagher.
Garey Schreftler, Chris Pletps, Bity Dixon
Third roww. coaches. Steve Condo, John Hodle Dennis Cleaves, Bill Dixon Don Behm John Whird row: coaches, Don Artsma
Dallas to play on Sunday Dallas will host West Scranton at $1: 30$ p.m. today in a first round Eastern Conference

Smith scores ace on 17th hole at Irem

Roy Smith scored his second career hole in one Sunday at Irem Temple Country Club. He aced the 150 -yard 17 th hole. His playing partners were Dave Reese, Carl Dymond and Dave Reese, Carl Dymond and Pete Pitarra.
Pirates Bantam drop close games The Pocono Pirates Bantan close defeats last weekend to the Lancaster Firebirds and the Hershey Junior Bears. Thomas McGrath, Shaverrates' three goals in a 7-3 loss rates three goals in a to the Firebirds. He assisted on another goal.
Mitchell helped keep the Dirma, Dallas, helped keep the Pirates in a close $3-2$ loss to Hershey the next day.

Martial arts honors uring the Black Belt test and challenge hosted by the Master Hatin was held, during which Master Hatin received the WDMAO masters recognition award for excellence, Kung-Fu/Kenpo Black Belt Chris Woytas was inducted into the organization as Chinese Kenpo Family Head Instructor, and Grandmaster Steven G. Newman was named Sr Kung Fu Family Head and elevated to oversee the executive coun cil governing interdisciplinary ranking and promotion.
Grandmaster Newman, Sifu Woytas, and WDMAO Pres.
The Mission of the White Dragon Martial Arts Organization is to use martial arts training methods for the benefit of arts instruction to promote health, longevity and well bein Those wishing more information may contact William tamoreux at 333-5216 (president), Bruce Baker at 639-5484 (self defense), David Haas at 333-5311 (grappling and Kung-Fu), or Peg Thomas at 696-3755 (Tai-Chi) or Chris

0'Reilly

26 minutes left a Notre Dame shot hit the crossbar off an indirect kick. With 9:25 left a Spartan player was issued a red card for foul language and the Spartans played a man the Spartans played a man down the rest of the contest. down the rest of the contest.
"They totally dominated the first half," Parulis said. "They got the red card. We just felt the adrenaline. Our guys staying in shape is what brought ing in shape is what brought us out on top."
In the first moments of overIn the first moments of overtime, the Queensmen created an excellent opportunity. A

Ale Dame's seco

Ellis hits late 3-pointer for win

Gyclones win Whitewater Tournament

New fitness instructors certified at Penn State Penn State Wilkes-Barre recently hosted certification and structors. The aerobic certification training was siven by the Aerobics & Fitness Association of America $(A F A A)$ an internationally recognized organization in the fitmess industry: the creator of the original in $n$ - door cycling program. The Athletics & Recreation Building is open to the public and new members are welcome. Shown, from left are Paula Opel, fitmess coordinator; Kel man, new aerobics instructors and Barbara Paulauskas, new

Girls 3-on-3 tournament

> The Rock Recreation Center will host a 3 -on-3 basketball tournament for girls in grades $6-8$ on Saturday, November 29 , beginning at $10 \mathrm{a} . \mathrm{m}$. Each half-court game in the tournament will last 15 mintes, with a running clock. Teams will get two timeouts stop in the last minute Entry fee is $\$ 35$ per team formation or to register, stop by at 340 Carverton Road, Trucksville, or call $696-2769$.

CROSSWORD CORNER

