Magical learning

Students at Wycallis Elementary School in Dallas Township were treated to a special enrichment program during National Magic Week. "The magician uses magic to show the importance of reading, math and science," said Kathy Wise, president of the PTO which sponsored the program.

Scott Sullivan has performed throughout Pennsylvania and New Jersey for eight years. He likes to stress the importance of good manners during his comedy/magic show. In top photo, The students loved fourth grade teacher Thomas Shaver's reaction to this magic trick.
