Lehman area mini-football ranks; and Langan.

Should Waters decline the position, Myers would likely be next in line. Another source said Langan had little chance of being retained and the School Board was looking for a new direction to the program.

The source said nine applicants were interviewed initially, including two with local ties who are coaching and teaching outside the area, and a local head coach.

Lehman opened the 2003 season with a 2-0 victory at Nanticoke, then lost its next nine games. The Black Knights finished 2-8 in 2002 and 3-7 in Lehman has been District 2's smallest Class 3A school the past four years, and was just three male students over the 2A limit the last two years.

The school will drop to 2A in football in 2004 and 2005, thus avoiding bigger schools and traditional powers — such as Berwick, Hazleton Area, Williamsport, Wyoming Area and Wyoming Valley West which have been on the schedule at times during the last four seasons.
