Contra Dance Saturday at St. Therese's

A New England Contra dance sponsored by the Chicory House will feature the music of "Medicinal Purpose" and caller Dave Colestock. The dance takes place Saturday Feb. 7, at 8 p.m. at St. Therese's Church, Pioneer Avenue at Davis Street in Shavertown. A beginner's workshop starts at 7:45. No partner or previous experience is necessary. Admission is $6 for adults and $15 for families.

Mandolin and hammered dulcimer player Henry Koretsky will join fiddler Ryck Kaiser playing the melodies. Jamie O'Brien accompanies on rhythm guitar. Medicinal Purpose has recorded a much-acclaimed recording, "Uncorked!"

Contra dancing is an evening of fun, featuring dancing in "sets" of about a dozen couples. Contra dancing is non-competitive; the main objective is to enjoy yourself with other fun-loving people. You don't have to take a course before you're considered experienced enough to dance the whole evening. Beginners are always welcome, and don't need to bring a partner. Further information is available at 333-4007.

The band Medicinal Purpose will perform at the Feb. 7 New England Contra Dance.

TNT presents 'Lettice and Lovage'

Lettice is a tour guide. A very bored tour guide in a very dreary historical residence where, according to her, nothing has ever happened. One day, while repeating the official story of Fustian House to a group of tourists — all of them bored out of their wits — she discovers that history can, indeed should, be improved upon. Lettice and Lovage was nominated for four Tony Awards in 1990, including one for Best Play, and won two.

The Northeast Theatre's production is directed by David Zarko, and introduces Mary Ellen Dziadosz, of Dallas, as Miss Framer. She is a student at TNT's training program, The Actor's Conservatory.

Lettice and Lovage will show Thursdays at 7, Fridays and Saturdays at 8 and Sundays at 2, Feb. 5 through Feb. 15 at The Theatre in Brooks, at Keystone College on Routes 6 & 11 in La Plume. Tickets are $18 general, $10 for Keystone College employees and seniors, and $6 for students. The performance of Friday, February 6 includes a post-show reception with food and beverage and a chance to meet the cast. Reservations are strongly encouraged. Call 945-6876. For more information.
