Penn State duo wins award for program

Cheryl Cavallari, Campus Ministries of NEPA and Jackie Warnick-Piatt, Student Activities-Internship Coordinator, Penn State Wilkes-Barre, were the recipients of Penn State University's 2003 Vice President's Award for Outstanding Program.

This award is presented to individuals or teams responsible for outstanding campus programming within the University. Individuals or teams/committees are nominated by their colleagues and/or students and are selected based on performance and contributions.

Cavallari and Warnick-Piatt

received the award for their ongoing program, "Religious Diversity Series" which brought a variety of lecturers to the campus to discuss their various religions. Presenters included Rabbi Larry Kaplan speaking on Judaism and the Jewish Holidays, Rev. Patricia Dai-En Binnacle on Buddhism, Father Philip Altavilla on Roman Catholicism in the 21st Century, Dr. Satish Mallick on Hinduism, and Native American Professor Frank Little Bear presenting on The Relationship Between Spirituality and His Music.

The series has been ongoing since spring 2002.

Penn State W-B taking registration for SAT preparation course

High school students can register now for Penn State Wilkes-Barre's review course for the Scholastic Assessment Test (SAT), to be given March 27 and May 1. This course offers students a seven-session grade-free course to prepare for the verbal and math portions of the SAT. Students can find ways to reduce time needed to answer questions, learn the recommended test taking order, increase reading comprehension, become familiar with math grids and when to use a calculator. The grade-free review course will be held on Saturdays, January 31 through March 13, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the campus in Lehman. Students may take one or both of the verbal and math reviews. For more information, call Penn State Wilkes-Barre Continuing Education at 675-9219 or e-mail paa10@psu.edu.
