including a 51-50 loss to Nanticoke. "It was really hard to breathe in here tonight. It was really warm, and I'm not used to wearing a mouthguard indoors. It was an adjustment I had to make."

Dallas, the first-half divisional champion, was also making adjustments with its chances of catching Nanticoke for the second-half title unlikely.

"The game was under control," Dallas coach Joe Noon said, "but the thing is we're doing different stuff. We're teaching and getting ready for the playoffs like everyone else."

FOR THE POST/FRED ADAMS

Lacey's three-pointer gave Dallas a 5-2 lead, an advantage it wouldn't surrender. Hoban chipped away and moved within 21-20 at halftime on Laura Valentine's three-pointer with five seconds left in the second quarter.

Dallas, though, opened with six consecutive points to start the third quarter. Hardwick's three-point play midway through the fourth increased the lead to double digits.
