margin. West Scranton senior Jackie Harris took second in the girls meet with 305.10. Harris and Rupert were almost even through the first round of five dives and the semifinal round of three dives. Harris pulled ahead to win silver in the final round of three dives.

Bishop Hoban junior Melissa Supczenski finished fourth with a score of 286.15.

"They have worked so hard all year long for this," Dallas diving coach Kim Perez said. "They made awesome changes during the season. They listened. They wanted to get bet-

"I knew I was going to have my highest score ever," Eby said. "I came into this thinking 'I'm trying to break 400.' I had no idea I was close to 478."

Eby broke 400 in 10 dives, and had a score of 429 heading into his last attempt. He scored 7s and 8s, giving him the record in dramatic fashion.

"I hope I can have a day like this at states," Eby said. If he does, there's a good chance that Eby, who finished 14th at states last year, will wear gold this year.

The last person to make a serious run at McGinley's record was Bishop Hoban's Brian Ginocchetti, who scored 476.05 at the 1995 District 2 Class 2A diving championships. Ginocchetti went on to win the state title in diving, with McGinley serving as Hoban's diving coach at the time.

"This is my first year as diving coach and I haven't been to a state meet, so I really don't know what the competition is like there," Perez said. "We're going to go down and hope to keep doing what we've been do-
