Essay writing workshop at Penn State W-B

College Application Essay Writing, a 6-hour workshop offered by Penn State Wilkes-Barre's Continuing Education department, will benefit high school students who need assistance in drafting their college application essays and applications for scholarships. Students will be shown techniques for drafting and refining their essays including engaging the reader, using important information to its best advantage, editing techniques, grammar and spelling.

The workshops will be held at the campus in Lehman on Thursdays, March 18-April 1 from 6-8 p.m. For more information, contact Lisa Lunderman at 675-9220 or wbc@outreach.psu.edu

Food fun at Sem

A book club within Joyce Ashley's sixth-grade reading class at Wyoming Seminary Lower School recently concocted "disgusting dishes" featured in the books of popular children's author Roald Dahl. After choosing one of the author's many books and taking a computerized test on comprehension, students were encouraged to prepare a "revolting recipe" featured in their chosen book. Pictured with her own culinary creation, entitled "Mr. Twit's Beard Food" from Dahl's book The Twits, is Olivia Lumia of Dallas.
