'The Importance of Being Earnest' at Misericordia

This spring the College Misericordia Players' present Oscar Wilde's satire, "The Importance of Being Earnest." The play, written in 1894, is considered to be Wilde's crowning comedic achievement. The plot follows Jack Worthing, a serious man who lets loose under the alter ego of his fictional younger brother, Earnest. His charade becomes complicated when his philandering friend Algernon Moncrieff arrives at Jack's country home pretending to be Earnest. When Jack's fiancée Gwendolen and his young ward Cecily join the gathering, his lies are exposed and his true identity turns out to be a surprise even to himself.

Performances will be held April 1, 2 and 3 at 8 p.m. in Walsh Auditorium. Tickets are available at the door, $3 for students and senior citizens and $5 for adults.

The cast includes several faces familiar to the College Misericordia stage. Sophomore John Hall plays Jack Worthing, whose friend Algernon is portrayed by junior Luis Martinez. Other cast members include junior Christina Stango as Gwendolen Fairfax, freshman Holly Young as Cecily Cardew, Heidi D'Amore as Lady Bracknell, senior Michael White as Rev. Canon Chasuble, senior

Local producer's Oscar-winning film at Cinemark

The Fog of War, a film produced by Dallas resident Robert May of SenArt Films and winner of the Oscar for documentary feature, is now playing at the Cinemark Theater in Moosic.

"Although audiences have a wide range of films from which to choose each week, there is none more important than The Fog of War. It's a film that you will be talking about for days and thinking about for years" said May.

The story follows Robert S. McNamara's life through many crucial events, including the crippling Depression of the 1930s, the industrialization of the war years, his years as Secretary of Defense under Presidents Kennedy and Johnson, and the development of a different kind of warfare based on air power and the creation of a new American meritocracy.

The Fog of War is the first historical investigation to make extensive use of taped telephone conversations from the Oval Office of the White House between President Lyndon B. Johnson and McNamara. Much of what has been written about McNamara reshapes a familiar story — that of a computer-like man, a hawk. However, the presidential recordings do not bear this out. Instead, a far more complex portrait of the man emerges — one who tried to serve two very different presidents: John F. Kennedy and Lyndon B. Johnson.

Broadway theme for barbershoppers

A Broadway theme will highlight the 52nd annual concert of the Wilkes-Barre Chapter, Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America (SPEBSQSA) to be held on April 3 in the Kirby Center for the Performing Arts, Wilkes-Barre. Curtain is at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets are available from members of the Wilkes-Barre SPEBSQSA and by calling ticket chair Jim Morpeth, 822-9756. (All seats reserved, $15 and $10).

Broadway choral numbers will feature the "Wyoming Valley Barbershop Harmony Chorus," shown, under the direction of Raymond Patsko, Wilkes-Barre; and assistant directors Philip Brown, Shavertown; and Jack Muchler, Wilkes-Barre.
