Remember When

We've been digging through our pile of old photos, and thought it would be fun to share some of them with you. Space allowing, we'll publish a scene from the Back Mountain's past each week on this page. Sometimes we'll be able to tell you about the event and the people in the frame, and sometimes we'll be clueless. That's when you can help — if you know names and details, please get them to us and we'll do our best to fill in the blanks for our readers. E-mail is the best communication method, so if you can, send info to: thepost@leader.net. Otherwise, send a fax to 675-3650, call 675-5211 or drop a note to: The Post, 15 N. Main St., Wilkes-Barre PA 18711.

Dig those 'dos

The gals down at Hall's Drug Store in Dallas were looking sharp in this undated photo. which we'd guess is from the 1950s. Do you know who they are?

Yes, it's that mill again

Okay, we think this is right. For sure it's the last word. Sheldon Mac Avoy wrote to correct a prior caller on the location of the former Trucksville Feed Mill. Mr. Mac Avoy distinctly recalls, as do others, that the mill stood just south of Harris Hill Road. On the same side of the road below the mill, he writes, were the American grocery store, a post office and some years later the DeRemer appliance store.

At the intersection of the present Rt. 309 and Carverton Road was a general store operated by George Shaver Sr.

Mr. Mac Avoy's recollections square with a number of other readers we've heard from.
