

Memorial Day observance in Jackson Township

The annual Memorial Service of the Jackson Township Volunteer Fire Company Ladies Auxiliary will be held Saturday, May 29, starting at 2 p.m. at the Honor Site in front of the fire hall on Chase Road.

The event includes an invocation by Rev. Thomas Morris; a civic ceremony led by the Very Rev. Herbert Nahas; and a military ceremony that includes a memorial message from Major Kevin Miller, and Firing of the Salvos.

Stephen Patla, a senior at Lake-Lehman High School, will provide "To the Colors", "Taps" and "Retreat" on trumpet.

Members of the Korean War Veterans will be present, along with Dallas Boy Scout Troop 232.

Anyone who would like to have a family member mentioned may call Desiree Evans at 779-2904. Questions about the program may also be directed to that number.

Damage claims accepted

TUNKHANNOCK — Residents whose homes or businesses sustained damage due to severe weather on May 12 are asked to contact the Emergency Management Agency at 836-3399 from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Please supply the following information: name, address, telephone number, assessed value of the structure that was damaged, list of contents damaged, and the estimated dollar amount of loss/damage. Residents also will be asked for insurance information.

MOVERS & SHAKERS

Mount Aloysius College awarded the prestigious Catherine McAuley Medal to Sister Cecilia Meighan, RSM, Ed. D., J.D., Director of Planned Giving and Institute of Law and Religious Life at College Misericordia, Dallas. The award was given during commencement ceremonies at Mount Aloysius in Cresson, Pa. on May 8.

The Catherine McAuley Medal is named for the foundress of the Sisters of Mercy and represents one of the most prestigious awards a Mercy institution can bestow. It is awarded to a person whose life achievements model Catherine McAuley's, whose entire life was devoted to compassionate service to others and service to Mount Aloysius College as well as being committed, in the spirit of Catherine McAuley, to the ideals and goals of Mount Aloysius College.

Sister Meighan, a resident of Dallas and native of Wilkes-Barre, is a former President of Mount Aloysius College, serving in that capacity from 1972 through 1976. She earned both a doctorate in higher education administration from Columbia University and a law degree from Georgetown University.

From 1965 until 1976, she served at Mount Aloysius College, first as a faculty member and then as College President. Among her achievements were the establishment of an institutional advancement office and the appointment of the first Director of Alumni Affairs. Over the years, she has served on Boards of Directors of Wilkes-Barre Mercy Hospital, Mercy Med-Care, Inc., Project Remain, Catherine McAuley Center in Scranton and College Misericordia. She has served on institutional ethics committees, assisted in collaborative efforts to form a Mercy health care system, advised the religious community on an array of legal and canonical issues related to sponsored institutions, and served as the Director of Ministry for the Sisters of Mercy. Mount Aloysius and College Misericordia are two of 18 Mercy colleges throughout the United States.

The board of directors of the Pennsylvania Forest Products Association recently selected Ron Andrews, president of Deer Park Lumber, Inc. of Tunkhannock, to the position of Chairman of the Board. The association is the largest timber and forest products industry trade group in the state, representing more than 220 companies and organizations involved in forestry, logging and wood product manufacturing and distribution.

Andrews was elected to the association's board in 2002. He has spent his entire career in the hardwood lumber business, and is an active member of several trade groups.

Members invited to apply for construction appeals board

KINGSTON TWP. — The Board of Supervisors is seeking applications to serve as members of the newly created Uniform Construction Code (UCC) Appeals Board.

Board members will be responsible for hearing and ruling on appeals, and requests for variances and time extensions. Qualified applicants must possess training and experience in building, design, construction, engineering, or a related field in accordance with state regulations.

Residency is not a requirement of this position, but township residents are encouraged to apply. Elected municipal officials and code administrators are not eligible to serve as members.

Individuals interested in this position should send a letter of interest to the Kingston Township Board of Supervisors, 180 East Center St., Shavertown, PA 18708, Attn: UCC Appeals Board.

Letters of interest should be received by May 28.

Questions about the UCC Appeals Board may be directed to Township Manager Eddie O'Neill at 696-3809.

Sale signs must be removed promptly

KINGSTON TWP. — Signs for garage/yard sales should be attached to individual stakes and should be removed no later than two days after the sale. It is illegal to attach the signs to utility/telephone poles or trees. Violators may be fined up to $300. For additional information, contact the zoning officer at 696-3809.
