Prayer breakfast held at Center Moreland UMC

The Center Moreland United Methodist Church held a National Day of Prayer Breakfast and Prayer Service on Thursday, May 6. Attending the breakfast and service were local clergy, community volunteers of fire and ambulance, local government officials and youth leaders and scouts of the local troops. Pastor of the Center Moreland United Methodist Church, Rev. Mary Jean Simonin, led other pastors and lay persons in prayers for our government, the media, our education system, the church and the family. A Candle Light Service of the Lord's Prayer was led by Pastor Simonin with Robert Phillips. Penny Reid was organist. Presentation of the Christian Flag and the American Flag was by the Girl and Boy Scouts and leaders.
