Midiri Brothers returns to Jazz in July at Misericordia

The renowned Midiri Brothers will bring their Benny Goodman tribute-themed performance to College Misericordia's Jazz in July outdoor concert at the Wachovia Amphitheatre on Monday, July 12, at 8 p.m. Tickets are $120 for festival table seating for six; $15 for reserved amphitheatre seating; and $8 for lawn seating. Tickets can be obtained by calling the College Misericordia theatre box office, 570-674-6719.

The Midiri Brother twins, Joe and Paul, navigate the twisting tunes of fluid big band sound with powerful, high-throttle energy that ignites heartstrings with as authentic a sound "... as though Benny Goodman had come back to life!" (Jack Lebergen, Keynotes, Pennsylvania Jazz Society News.) Whether fast and frenzied, or mesmerizing and sultry, their focused, dynamic mastery of musicianship engages the spirit to flight with a beauty that can best be felt, not described.

Scott Yanow, a music critic for Los Angeles Jazz Scene magazine, in a review of last year's Orange County Classic Jazz Festival, wrote, "The most impressive playing was by the Midiri Brothers from New Jersey. Joe Midiri is a brilliant clarinetist who can sound just like Benny Goodman but also has a musical personality of his own. Paul Midiri plays high-powered vibes and occasionally joins in on drums and trombone. The band bases many of their frameworks on the Benny Goodman Sextet of the 1940s while extending the ideas."

For more information, see the Cultural Events calendar on the College Misericordia website, www.misericordia.edu or call the box office, 674-6719.

A summer afternoon of classical music. A light reception will follow. Tickets: $10. Dietrich Theater, 60 E. Tioga St., Tunkhannock. Info, 996-1500.

July 17 - LIVINGSTON TAYLOR, professor, musician, and a man who once received The Boston Music Award for "best folk and acoustic artist," will perform the Starlight Concert, 8 p.m. at the Wachovia Amphitheatre on the College Misericordia campus. Tickets are $120 for festival table seating for six; $15 for reserved amphitheatre seating; and $8 for lawn seating. Call the box office, 674-6719.
