Folk Art and Americana at the Dietrich

Ed McMullen, Curator of Collections at the Everhart Museum in Scranton, which has an extensive American Folk Art and Americana collection, has recently mounted an exhibit at the Dietrich Theater in Tunkhannock. The exhibit will continue through July 30.

As part of the exhibit, Mr. McMullen will present a talk and take questions on the subject of early American Folk Art and Americana on July 27 at 7 p.m. Admission is $5.

"I am excited to be able to present both this talk and this exhibit," said McMullen. "The Everhart Museum has one of the best collections of early American Folk Art and Americana this side of the Abby Aldrich Rockefeller Museum at Colonial Williamsburg."

The exhibit, including items from the late 18th and early 20th century, will include carvings, household items, pottery, metalware, wooden items, works on paper and textile, trade signs, and items from the early Pennsylvania German communities.

For information or reservations for the lecture, call Margie Young at the Dietrich Theater at 996-1500.

Gathering of singer songwriters Thursday in Tunkhannock

For the third consecutive year, the Dietrich Theater in Tunkhannock will host a Gathering of Singer Songwriters, an informal sharing and celebration, this year featuring KJ Wagner, Shawn Z, Tom Flannery, and Lorne Clarke on Thursday, July 22 at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are $5, children and students free. Call 996-1500 for information.

KJ Wagner, new to the Dietrich stage, is known to have a song for everyone. A gifted vocalist with captivating stage presence, she is one of the most "in demand" performers currently on the international Folk Festival circuit. Her upbeat attitude and positive energy combine to make every performance a delight.

Also new to the Dietrich stage is Shawn Z, who is known to fill the house with rock, country, folk music and humor. A veteran of every aspect of the music business, from radio DJ, to record producer, to concert promoter, to touring artist,

KJ Wagner

Shawn Z is returning to Northeast PA after more than 10 years on the road. His seemingly bottomless bag of songs provides a soundtrack to life on the American road.

Tom Flannery is no stranger to the Dietrich, having performed in concert and having his plays presented. He is a native of northeastern PA and the de-scendent of Irish coal miners. A successful playwright, he is also one of the most prolific songwriters on the scene today.

Lorne Clarke, the organizer of this concert who will also serve as host, has performed at festivals, clubs, theaters and house concerts across Canada and the U.S. for the last 25 years. Well known in Northeastern PA as the host of the Old Lynn Church Concerts, Clarke is a commanding presence on stage. His live shows are buoyed by his sharp sense of humor and a powerful baritone voice is backed up with consummate skill on guitar.
