Internationally-known art on display

A painting by Voyen Cech Colini

"A Celebration of Two Masters," is now on display at Lizza Studios 155 Bridge St., Tunkhannock.

The exhibit brings together surrealist painter Voyen Cech Colini and glass sculptor Christopher Ries, two internationally renowned and extraordinary artists.

Voyen Cech Colini was born in 1924, in Kolin Czechoslovakia, now a part of the Czech Republic. During his high school years, after the end of WWI, the surrealists were at the peak of their influence in Central Europe. The young man would view their works in the art galleries and was so impressed it became his lifelong ambition to become a great painter.

As he matured, Colini became fascinated with Italian art of the Renaissance Era, and decided to paint only in egg tempera. He began to find ways to improve the surrealists weaknesses by overlaying a Renaissance flavor. Thus was developed the unique style that is the trademark of Colini today. When the Communists took over Central Europe after WWII, Colini lived in Switzerland and then France from which he was forced to leave for Venezuela because he had no papers. He later immigrated to Canada, then moved to the United States, living in the New York area for many years, returning to Europe each year to study art, and exhibit in Switzerland and Germany. Colini now calls Northeastern Pennsylvania his home, where he continues to paint and exhibit his fascinating works.

Christopher Ries composes light through the medium of glass. He works with solid blocks of optic crystal and releases the form, employing the same techniques used in stone sculpting. His work is deceptively simple in form, but complex in expression.

The show will continue through Sept. 4. Gallery hours are M-F, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Saturday 10 a.m. to 5. For more information, call 836-8806.
