

Cancer survivors to be feted at stadium

The Komen NEPA Breast Cancer Foundation and The Scranton/Wilkes-Barre Red Barons will team up to host Breast Cancer Survivor Night at Lackawanna County Stadium Thursday, August 5. The Red Barons will be taking on the Buffalo Bisons in a double-header with the special program taking place between games. The first game is slated to begin at 5 p.m.

Festivities will begin immediately following the conclusion of the first game. Survivors wearing a pink Survivor Komen NEPA Race for the Cure® t-shirt will receive a free game ticket and fans who wear any white Komen NEPA Race for the Cure® t-shirt get half off.

Ceremonies will be highlighted by the formation of the Pink Survivors Living Ribbon with the assistance of the Seton Catholic cheerleaders.

Any survivor who is interested in participating in the Living Ribbon should contact Dolly Woody at the Komen NEPA Foundation at 969-6072 or 1-800-650-CURE (2873).

For more information, call the Red Barons at 969-6072 or Komen NEPA at 969-6072 or visit them on-line at www.redbarons.com or www.neparace-forthecure.org.

BMT Seniors meet at Mercy Center

The Back Mountain Senior Citizens will meet Thursday, Aug. 5 at 1 p.m. in Mercy Center, College Misericordia, Dallas. Due to renovation work, the club will not meet at St. Therese's Church hall until further notice.

To reach the Aug. 5 meeting place, enter the Misericordia campus through the arch on Lake Street, then follow signs to the Mercy Center parking lot. The receptionist will direct visitors to the meeting room.

"Pull Tabs for Dialysis" and "Cancelled Postage Stamps for Veterans Hospitals" are still being collected.

Celebrating August birthdays will be Ethel Baltruskas, Mary Parker and Marie and Ray Yurkavage. Bakers for August will be Lillian Soveroski and Janette Grieves. For more information, call 696-3095 or 696-1828.

Lake Township taxes due

Lake Township school property and per capita tax bills were mailed to the address of property owners July 15. If taxes are paid by a mortgage company or bank, the property owner is responsible for forwarding the bill to them.

County and municipal taxes are now due at penalty value. The last day to pay all 2004 taxes is December 15. In addition to the hours and office location printed on the tax bills, taxes may be paid at the municipal building on Route 29 two Saturdays, Aug. 14 and Aug. 28, between 10 a.m. and noon. Call 639-1522 with any other questions.
