Children's play will be a highlight

The Penn State campus in Lehman will come alive Sunday, August 29 with the 20th anniversary Arts at Hayfield Summer Arts & Crafts Festival. The Back Mountain Childrens Theatre Co. will present a comedy-musical show, "Five Pigs Go West," at 2 p.m. in the big tent. The company produced "Pigs Go West" at the 1999 festival and brings it back by special request.

The festival will be held 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. The annual event features arts and crafts, music and performances, crafter demonstrations, antiques appraisals, children's activities and plenty of food.

After walking the grounds, catch your breath and "sit a spell" under the tent to catch all the exciting snortin' and squealin' of the famous five pigs; Sooeey, Hooley, Pigtail, Piglet, and WeeWee.

There is no additional entrance charge for "Five Pigs Go West," it's part of the whole event.

The Friedman Observatory will be open from 3 to 6 p.m. and Hayfield House will be open for tours starting at 11 a.m. A $1 per adult donation is requested. For more information, call 675-9232.
