

'Kiss The Pig' contest needs your vote

Voting for the "Kiss the Pig" Contest is well underway, as five Back Mountain personalities vie for the "honor," and for a good cause. The contest, has this year become a fundraiser for the charity or non-profit of the "winner's" choice.

Ballot jars can be found at the following locations: Ochman's Jewelry, Church St., Dallas; J&J Deli, Rt. 415, Dallas; Citizens Bank, Main St., Dallas; UniMart, Rt. 309, Dallas; Pizza Perfect, Carverton Rd., Trucksville; the office of State Senator Charles D. Lemmond, Dallas Shopping Center; Libations Pub, Main St., Dallas; Hilbert's The Tractor Store, Rt. 415, Dallas; Jersey Shore Restaurant, Lake St., Dallas; Lehman Country Grill, Lehman Center; Fino's Pharmacy, Dallas; and L.L. Richardson Dodge, Lake St., Dallas. It is requested that a donation of $1 be included with each submitted ballot.

Participants may vote as often as they wish through Saturday, Sept. 18. The "winner" will be announced Sunday afternoon, Sept. 19.

Parking, shuttle buses available all day Sunday

Parking will be available at five sites, with buses traveling back and forth all afternoon during the festival on Sunday, Sept. 19.
