Interdependence Day celebration Sept. 13 at College Misericordia

College Misericordia invites the public to celebrate Interdependence Day on Monday, Sept. 13, with a lecture and celebration beginning at 9:30 a.m. in the Kennedy Lounge of the Banks Student Center on the CM campus. The event is free of charge.

As part of the celebration, students and faculty will join together to read the Declaration of Interdependence. All students, faculty and staff are invited to sign the document, which will be sent to the Democracy Collaborative in New York City.

Dr. George Agbango, a native of Ghana and board member of the Diversity Institute at College Misericordia, will be the guest speaker. His talk focuses on the importance of Globalization. Dr. Agbango is also a political science professor at Bloomsburg University.

Interdependence Day is a day for reflecting on the realities of an interdependent world and the civic responsibilities that come with it. It begins with the premise that people — citizens of their own communities, their nations and the world — can and must be the driving force and principle agents for change for a more democratic future. Celebrations of Interdependence Day will also be held in Rome, Italy, in Philadelphia, and on several college campuses in the United States.

The Interdependence Day celebration on the Misericordia campus is sponsored by the Social Justice Committee at College Misericordia and The Diversity Institute of Northeastern Pennsylvania at CM.
