second half. Junior Mike Wyberski gave Dallas a 1-0 lead with 20:17 remaining in the first half and DeAngelo made it 2-0 with 8:01 left before halftime.

"It's a nice win, but our finishing problems continue. We have to find ways to score," said Dallas coach Chris Scharff.

DeAngelo, who is a member of the state's U-16 Olympic Development Program, was slammed to the ground inside the box at the 33:58 mark of the second half to earn his second penalty kick. He connected to give the Mountaineers a 3-0 lead.

Lake-Lehman's Grant Roberts got the Black Knights on the scoreboard with 32:09 remaining in the game. The junior blasted a high-arching shot inches under the crossbar from 23 yards out, giving Dallas goalkeeper Ryan Gilroy no chance to make the save.

Dallas sophomore Alex Baltimore closed out the scoring, fielding a ball that bounced off the left post and punching it past Kinter with 26:49 left.

Despite the loss, Lake-Lehman coach Frank Carrozza was pleased with the effort of his dream, which dressed just 16 players. Fatigue played a factor late in the game, with Dallas using an 18-man rotation throughout the contest while several Lake-Lehman players, including McMahon and McHugh, never left the field.

"We might run out of gas, but our kids never stopped hustling," said the first-year coach. "We're getting better. We're doing it with small strides."

Black Knights goalkeeper Wes Kinter stopped 15 Dallas shots, while Gilroy turned away three from Lehman.

HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL

Black Knights win first under new coach

Staff report

LEHMAN TWP. — It didn't take long for Lake-Lehman to notch a victory for new head coach Greg Myers.

Senior quarterback Ryan Arcangeli threw for 111 yards and two touchdowns and rushed for 48 yards as Lake-Lehman defeated Pocono Mountain West 22-18 Friday night, the Black Knights' first win in more than a year.

The Black Knights last win came in the first week of the 2003 season, when they stopped Greater Nanticoke Area 2-0.

"Yeah, it's our first win and we are 1-1 and we beat a good football team, but I just like to see the look on our kids' faces, because it's been a long time since we won here and since they won this type of a football game," Myers said.

Pocono Mountain West scored first when Mckinley Arrick, Jr. ran in from 2 yards to give the Panthers a 6-0 lead.

On the Knights' first drive, Arcangeli hit senior wide receiver Chris Boyle for 51 yards, giving them a 7-6 lead.

The Panthers responded to take a 12-7 lead to end the first quarter.

Early in the second quarter, Arcangeli connected with Rich Schofield from 11 yards out to put his team up 14-12.

Lake-Lehman's defense then started to play tough, forcing the Panthers to go three and out on their next two drives.

The Panthers' first punt was blocked by a swarm of defenders, and freshman quarterback Ken Pollock fell on the ball in the end zone for the score and a 20-12 lead.

The Panthers next punt wasn't much better. A bad snap sailed through the end zone and Lehman was rewarded two more points for a safety.

Myers couldn't say enough about his team. "What it boils down to is the kids. They made the adjustments and they stopped what they were doing and made the stops."

The defense remained strong until late in the fourth quarter when Pocono Mountain West cut the deficit to 22-18.

Mountaineers are way too much for GAR to handle

DALLAS TWP. — With quarterback Matt Kelly leading the way, the Mountaineers left little to chance Sept. 11, as they jumped to a 24-0 lead in the first eight minutes against the overmatched Grenadiers.

When it was over, Kelly had thrown for three touchdowns and rushed for two more and Dallas had a 2-0 overall record, 1-0 in the Wyoming Valley Conference Class 2A.

Kelly capped an opening 64-yard drive with a 1-yard plunge for his first score. On the first play from scrimmage after GAR had fumbled on the ensuing kickoff, Kelly hit tight end Jeff Bernosky for a 39-yard touchdown strike.

Three plays later, linebacker Doug Harris sacked Grenadiers quarterback Mike Parcinski in the end zone for a safety and a 17-0 lead.

On the next series, Kelly hit Nick Samanas from 20 yards out to make it 24-0.

"From the time we came out of the locker room, we wanted to get the ball and score," said Matt Daube, a team captain. "We wanted to take it right to them."

The Mountaineers scored on all but two of their possessions on the day, and the defense held GAR to only 17 rushing yards on 30 carries. Meanwhile, Dallas gained 416 offensive yards, with Kelly throwing for 130 yards on 9-of-18 completions.

Harris led the rushing attack with 110 yards on 17 carries. Nick Onzik gained 34 yards and scored a touchdown and Nick Major had a 49-yard run to the end zone.
