Halloween characters will dance at the Darte

Characters and costumes of all sorts and styles will be strutting their stuff at "The Monster's Jubilee," the Joan Harris Centre's annual Halloween spooktacular scheduled for Oct. 16 and 17 at the Dorothy Dickson Darte Centre for the Performing Arts. The event is scheduled for performances at 1 and 5 p.m. on Saturday and a 2 p.m. matinee on Sunday. The fast-paced production will feature hundreds of dancers from Back Mountain communities pooling their talents with performers from across the region. Monsters' Jubilee is broken into three acts, beginning with a midnight trip through an enchanted farm and concluding with a Halloween party at a haunted mansion. The production is designed to be enjoyed by "trick-or-treaters" of every age.

Highlighting the show will be the ballet, "Peter and the Wolf." The ever-popular tale was composed by maestro Prokofiev as a way to introduce children to the workings of orchestras and to classical music. Inspired by the choreography of Matthew Hart from the Royal Ballet, Jennifer and Elisabeth Harris uses a dance treatment to bring this storied musical piece to life. The music is fun, the sets are grand, populated with every kind of creature imaginable in a musical costume parade that makes for a great show to bring "little monsters" to. Tickets are $7 in advance and can be purchased at the school's Back Mountain campus in the Twin Stacks Complex in Dallas. For more information, call 674-3699 or visit the school on the web at www.joanharrisdancers.com.
