The Arrogant Worms to perform at Misericordia

Canada's wackiest comedic/musical export, The Arrogant Worms, will appear at College Misericordia's Walsh Auditorium on Tuesday, Oct. 19 at 8 p.m. Tickets are $5 and can be purchased in advance through the CM box office, 674-6719. College Misericordia students get in free with their CM ID card.

What started out as a joke quickly became a career for these three college students from Queen's University in Kingston, Ontario, Canada. Performing comedy sketches and comedy songs on the campus radio station soon garnered them national attention. The Arrogant Worms hit the road in 1992, delighting audiences across Canada, and soon made their first record. The trio went on to release six more independent albums, including Russell's Shorts, Live Bait, Christmas Turkey and Idiot Road.

Chris Patterson, Mike McCormick and Trevor Strong — The Arrogant Worms — bring a performance to stage that combines the best performing traditions of vaudeville, Martin and Lewis, and the antics of Chevy Chase on Saturday Night Live. T For reserved tickets and more information, call 674-6719.
