game, followed by the 2-point conversions by Wanek and Goeringer. Also rushing for some big gains were Jordan Mullen, J.D. Mead, Woody Baney, Justin Brobst and Paul Brace. Throughout the season Dallas scored over 30 points per game.

In the second half, Paul Brace hauled in a 25-yard pass from Tyler Shutlock to set up another touchdown by Goeringer. The Dallas defensive line led by Buddy Shutlock, Donnie Behm, Austin Sickler, Robert Graham and Bryan McDonnell put pressure on the Raiders' quarterback and running backs throughout the entire game, linebackers while Eric Anderson, Garrett Artsma and Bobby Saba led the team in tackles. Outside containment was held by Michael Wright, Patrick Condo, Billy Dixon, Stephen Zapoticky and Dustin Siperko.

Stephen Zapoticky had a third quarter interception and took the Raiders back for a loss of yardage several times which helped to seal the win.

right side of the Raider defense. KT came right back to score on their next two possessions to take the lead at 12-6 and put Duryea behind on the scoreboard for the first time during the 2004 season in any of their previous 11 games. Neil Shaver, following perimeter blocks by J.T. Carey, Joe Delamater, Jesse Shaffer and Matt Doggett, scored on a 71-yard sweep and a 15-yard draw play for his 26th and 27th touchdowns of the season.

After the ensuing kickoff, Duryea methodically drove the ball to the Raiders 8-yard line. The drive appeared to stall after a penalty and three sacks by Kyle Kotulski, Domenic Oliveri and Luke Edwards. Facing a fourth and goal from the Raider 25-yard line, the Wildcats executed a double reverse that caught the Raider defense by surprise and resulted in the game-tying touchdown going into halftime.

Both defenses stiffened and hammered the opposing ball carriers while trading field position throughout most of the second half. With seven minutes to go in the game, Duryea took possession at the Raiders 46-yard line and drove to the Raiders 12 while taking four minutes off the clock. On fourth down, the Wildcats swept around the Raiders defense and scored the goahead touchdown. KT was unable to answer on their last possession and Duryea ran out the clock.
