Sordoni honored for commitment to kids

Children's Service Center has recognized Peg Sordoni of Harveys Lake with the Outstanding Commitment to Children Award for her dedication to the well-being of the young people of the region. The award was presented Nov. 16 at the organization's 66th annual luncheon at the Genetti Hotel & Convention Center, Wilkes-Barre.

Sordoni has served as a volunteer at the Children's Service Center for the past 27 years as a board member, including two years as chairperson. She now serves as a board member for the Sordoni Foundation and for the United Way of Wyoming Valley.

According to Joe DeVizia, president/chief executive officer of the Children's Service

Center, Sordoni's commitment to children has made a strong and significant difference in their lives.

The Children's Service Center is a nonprofit United Way Agency, which has assisted children and adolescents since 1938. Its newest facility, BridgeView, a residential treatment center located in Wilkes-Barre, will open later this year.
