Scouts raise $600 for Family Enhancement Center

The Family Enhancement Center recently received a $600 donation from Lake-Lehman High School seniors Brandon Johnson and Cody Kopcha as part of a Boy Scouts of America bike rally fundraiser.

As part of their senior project, the pair organized and rode a 20-mile trail from Red Rock to Noxen with family and friends, all to support the Family Enhancement Center. They also held a bake sale to raise more funds.

The Family Enhancement Center, a division of the Behavioral Health Services of Wyoming Valley, is a non-profit organization that provides at home nursing visits to new families. The registered nurses provide new families with prenatal care and offer follow up care for the families for up to three years. The funds will be used by the Center to provide formula, diapers and other infant needs to the families they serve.

Lake-Lehman seniors help Head Start

Three seniors from Lake-Lehman High School held a four-day volleyball camp benefiting Luzerne County Head Start Inc. R.I.F. and Birthday Book project. The three seniors raised $530 for R.I.F., allowing the program to offset part of the matching local share. The donation will also be used for the Birthday Book project which allows the program to give a book to each child for their birthday. Savannah Coombs, David Harrison and Jessica Turak, with assistance from their community mentor, Bob Rogers and faculty mentor, John Baranowski held the camp for students going into grades seven, eight and nine. They taught basic skills of the game along with game situations. The three, along with their sponsors, provided a pizza party at the end of the camp and a t-shirt. From left, Turak, Harrison, Coombs, and Tina Giuliani, head start education/literacy specialist.

Students practicing Christmas play

The preschool, kindergarten and first grade are hard at work with their Christmas production, which will be performed on Dec. 19 and Dec. 22. On Dec. 21, students will entertain the Sisters of Mercy at the Meadows in Dallas with their show.

Members of Mrs. Malone's Service Club are making original Christmas greeting cards for the nursing home residents for the holiday season.

Sophia Marruzzelli, a new seventh grade student, represented Gate of Heaven School at the 21st annual Marywood University Jr. High Band Festival for District 9 (Luzerne, Lackawanna, Susquehanna, Wayne, and Wyoming counties) on Dec. 3-4.

Gate House taking registration

The Gate House Early Childhood Development Center is now accepting registrations for the 2005-2006 school year.

The Primary focus of The Gate House is to enhance a wide range of developmentally appropriate social, creative, cognitive, linguistic and quantitative skills, and to develop self-esteem and social skills in each child. Individual development is monitored by a certified early childhood teacher. Parents may call Gate of Heaven School's office at 675-6566 or The Gate House at 674-4855 and ask to speak to Mrs. Mary Jane Kozick, director of the Gate House for more information and/or a registration form.
