Lesser-known artist shows exceptional skill

Apple Orchard, by Tavis Teichman.

Lizza Studios will host an opening reception for Tavis World, and exhibit of work by artist/illustrator Tavis Teichman, today from 2 to 5 p.m.

A prolific artist and illustrator, she devoted her life to painting almost to an obsession. Teichman began her career at the age of 3 under the tutelage of her artist father, Frank Abbott Palmer, in Northfield, New Jersey. Her extraordinary natural talent won a number of prizes in children's art shows and at age 16 she had her first one-girl show in Atlantic City.

Early in her career she held lucrative positions as a designer and commercial artist. Discontented with the acute limitations of the commercial art world, she began a long and fruitful period of experimentation. In June 1969 one of her Daisy Girl paintings appeared on the cover of Prevention Magazine. Many of her paintings are in prominent collections throughout the country.

Tavis Teichman died in 1997 at 77. The exhibit will continue through March 5. Gallery hours are: Mon.-Fri., 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., and Saturdays 10 to 5. Lizza Studios is located at 155 Bridge St. in Tunkhannock. For more information, call 836-8806.

MUSIC

Sem concert with orchestra, ensembles and soloists

The Wyoming Seminary music department will present the music of Rossini, Mendelssohn, Faure and other classical and contemporary composers on Sunday, January 16 during its annual winter instrumental concert. The concert will begin at 3 p.m. in the Great Hall of Wyoming Seminary, 228 Wyoming Ave., Kingston. It is free and open to the public.

The orchestra, conducted by Anthony J. Kubasek, will perform the Contrasts for Orchestra by Hull, The Pavane, Op. 50 by Faure and Camp Meeting (Fantasia on Early American Hymns) by Gustafson.

A piano quartet will present Strauss' Stanchen for Piano Quartet and a woodwind trio will perform a Scott Joplin piece, The Easy Winners. Other Sem chamber ensembles and soloists will present selected works from the classical repertoire. For more information call 270-2190.

Endless Mountain Shape Note Singers to gather

The Endless Mountain Shape Note Singers meet to sing on Sunday January 9, from 3 to 5 p.m., at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, 33 S. Franklin St., Wilkes-Barre. Singers and listeners are welcome, and there is no admission charge. The group sings a capella four-part shape note music, and uses the "Sacred Harp," a collection of sacred songs, and anthems. Loaner copies are available. The music is written in standard musical notation, but is supplemented by shaped note heads.

The music includes 18th century fusing tunes, anthems, hymns and some modern tunes in these traditions. Shape note singers gather for enjoyment, not in preparation for performance. There is no need to proficiently read music, and all are welcome.

For information and for weather-related cancellations call David Martin at 333-4007.
