Golf tournament aids autism program

Wilkes University students, working for the student-run Zebra Communications firm, will assist the Autism Golf Classic planning committee with its marketing and promotions effort in 2005. The event, scheduled for Monday, June 13 at the Huntsville Golf Club, will benefit the John Heinz Institute Autism program.

Proceeds from the event will once again benefit the charitable services and technology investments in the Pediatric Autism Program at the John Heinz Institute of Rehabilitation Medicine. The golf event has raised nearly $200,000 over the past eleven years for pediatric services at John Heinz Institute.

In addition to the golf tournament, a silent auction will be held during the event, featuring a golf trip to the Villa at the Westin Resort in Hilton Head, South Carolina, donated by Michael Raymond, Ph.D.

For more information on the Autism Golf Classic or auction, call 826-3836, or e-mail Jim Brogna at jbrogna@allied-services.org.
