WRESTLERS

Matt Dragon was awarded the Tracey Slocum Memorial Award, which honors the senior wrestler with the most career wins. During his final season at Lake-Lehman, Matt became the all-time leading Wyoming Valley Conference wrestler in victories. He compiled a career record of 166-11.

He was a four-time District 2 champion, a three-time Northeast Regional champion, and a three-time state medal winner, where he finished fifth as a sophomore, third as a junior and first as a senior. He finished his senior season with a 45-0 mark. "Matt's one of those unique individuals who comes along once in a lifetime," said Lipski.

In honor of his performance, the award will be renamed the Matt Dragon Award, in honor of Matt's drive to become the best wrestler in Lake-Lehman history. Besides winning, the award will recognize team leadership, academics, setting lofty goals and becoming a state qualifier. "Matt has raised the bar for Lake-Lehman wrestling" quipped Lipski.

"Watch for him to turn many heads on the collegiate level," said Lipski.

Jeremy Schutz was recognized as Lake-Lehman's pinning machine. During his four-year stint, Jeremy compiled 99 pins, more than any L-L wrestler. He was a two-time District 2 champion and a three-time Northeast Regional qualifier. He compiled a career record of 133-22.

Schutz will continue his education and wrestling at Wilkes University. His parents, Jerry and Lisa, have been an integral part of Jeremy's success throughout the years. "He's a great kid," said volunteer assistant coach Bob Lipski. "One of the best I've ever seen."

Phil Lipski thanked the coaching staff aiding Lake-Lehman's success. "From the elementary on up (Don and Kathy Carter) through junior high (Scott Carter and Alex Wilson), it's a collaborative effort," he said. He especially thanked assistant coach Mike Tereska.

Top power lifter

Robert Costigan of Harveys Lake took first place in the 242.5 pound Masters Class at "The Beast in The East" Powerlifting Championship held at the Power Gym in Taylor on April 17. ## Sem alumni golf tournament

The Wyoming Seminary Alumni Association recently announced Sodexo Alliance as the principal sponsor for the 21st Annual Wyoming Seminary Open golf tournament.

A shotgun start is slated for 10 a.m. Friday, May 13 at Blue Ridge Trail golf course in Mountain Top. Proceeds will benefit the Wyoming Seminary Alumni Scholarship Fund.

To register for the tournament, or for more information on sponsorship opportunities, contact Julie McCarthy Strzeletz, class of 1987, Associate Director of Development, at 270-2140.

Autism Golf Classic June 13

The 12th annual Autism Golf Classic, which will benefit the regional autism program and services at the John Heinz Institute of Rehabilitation Medicine, is planned for Monday, June 13 at the Huntsville Golf Club.

The annual benefit event has raised nearly $100,000 in the past three years for the autism program, and the committee has established a $35,000 goal for the 2005 event.

For more information on the autism program and services, or if you wish to support the fundraising event, contact one of the committee members, or call Jim Brogna at 348-1347, or e-mail jbrogn@allied-services.org.

Tournament aids Red Cross

The Wyoming Valley Chapter of the American Red Cross will hold its fifth annual golf outing at Irem Temple Country Club on Friday, June 24. Tee time is 12:30 p.m., rain or shine. The format is captain and crew. The cost for a foursome is $400, which includes cart, greens fees and a buffet meal. Proceeds will support Red Cross programs in upper Luzerne County. To register or for more information, call 823-7161.
