THRILL OF VICTORY

Black Knights get first win in 5 years over Mountaineers

DALLAS, May 18 — Lake-Lehman beat Dallas for the first time in five seasons, but the Mountaineers made them earn it. On the way to a 10-9 final, both teams scored three runs in the first inning and two in the second. But in the top of the third, winning pitcher Matt Kapitula hit the first of his two home runs, a three-run blast that was never in doubt.

The Black Knights scored four runs in the inning, but that still wasn't enough. Dallas came back with three runs in the bottom of the fourth before Lehman tacked on one in the top of the fifth on Kapitula's second homer.

After failing to score in the fifth or sixth, Dallas pushed a run across in the bottom of the seventh, and had men on first and third when Kapitula recorded his eighth strikeout. But it still wasn't over, as catcher Pat McHugh lost the handle on the pitch. But he picked up the ball and calmly tossed it to first baseman Kenny Pollock for the final out.

Matt Straub added a double and a triple for Lehman, Derek Shumanek hit a home run and Matt Shiskowski went 2-for-4 with a double.

For Dallas, Mike Race had three hits, scored three runs and drove in two. He hit a two-run homer in the second inning to tie the game at 5-5. Greg Harris hit a three-run homer in the first inning.

Joe Lambert took the loss in relief of John Parulski.

Back Mountain teen sets two American power lifting records

Dan Anderson, 15-year-old son of Dan and Kim Anderson of Shavertown, recently set two American records in power lifting.

Dan competed in the ADAU (Anti Drug Athletes United) RAW competition, held April 30 in Bigler, Pa. At RAW competitions lifters are not allowed to wear any power lifting gear such as bench shirts, knee wraps etc. The only gear allowed is a 4 inch leather belt.

This is the oldest, continuously run bench press/dead lift contest in the world, and is hosted by its founder, Allan Siegel.

Dan finished first in his age and weight class. In the bench press, Dan had a final lift of 385 pounds. In the dead lift, his final lift was 485 pounds. Both set new American records.

Dan had the distinct pleasure in meeting three world class record holders while attending the meet, Siegel, Vince Anello and Don Reinhoudt, who also held the title of World's Strongest Man three times.

Dan will be competing this June in the Raw A.D.A.U. National Power Lifting Championships, also being held in Bigler.

Dan is a sophomore at Dallas High School where he is a member of the varsity football team.
