

MOVERS & SHAKERS

In a ceremony held on June 20 in Washington D.C., Sr. Cecilia Meighan, RSM, Ed.D., J.D., was admitted to the Bar of the Supreme Court of the United States.

Sister Meighan, a resident of Dallas and native of Wilkes-Barre, earned a degree from College Misericordia, a doctorate in higher education administration from Columbia University and a law degree from Georgetown University. She is currently of counsel with the law firm of Gallagher, Brennan and Gill of Kingston, and director of Planned Giving at College Misericordia. She is the founder and director of College Misericordia's Institute for Law and Religious Life.

Sr. Meighan is a member of the Dallas Regional Community of the Institute of the Sisters of Mercy of the Americas. From 1965 until 1976, she worked at Mount Aloysius College, first as a faculty member and then as president. Over the years, she has served on boards of directors of Wilkes-Barre Mercy Hospital, Mercy Med-Care, Inc., Project Remain, Catherine McAuley Center in Scranton and College Misericordia. She was an active participant on institutional ethics committees, assisted in collaborative efforts to form a Mercy health care system, advised religious communities on an array of legal and canonical issues related to sponsored institutions, and was the Director of Ministry for the Sisters of Mercy.

Vanessa G. Velikis, of Dallas, recently graduated Magna Cum Laude from the Nesbitt School of Pharmacy, Wilkes University, with her Doctor of Pharmacy degree. Velikis completed her state internship requirements at the SUNY Upstate Medical University, Wilkes Barre General Hospital and the VA Medical Center.

Velikis is a 1999 graduate of Dallas High School. She is the daughter of Debra Velikis, Dallas, Vincent Velikis, Swoyersville. She is the granddaughter of Bub and Nancy Roberts, Trucksville, and William and Mary Velikis, Swoyersville.

Velikis completed her state internship requirements at the SUNY Upstate Medical University, Wilkes Barre General Hospital and the VA Medical Center.

Heltzel family collections on display

Karen Heltzel, of Dallas, and her children are displaying their collections in the Back Mountain Memorial Library throughout the month of June. Karen has a number of snow globes, mostly gifts from Santa Claus. Alexandra, 10, a fifth grader at Wycallis Elementary School, has been collecting hotel key cards for two or three years from around the United States, and as far away as Spain, Mexico and Jamaica. Emily, 6, has been collecting flattened pennies for three years from sites such as Niagara Falls, a Cape May train, and establishments such as restaurants and amusement parks.

Summer Reading Game special events

The theme for this year's Summer Reading Game for first to eighth graders at the Back Mountain Memorial Library is "Dragons, Dreams & Daring Deeds."

These special events are being held this summer for game participants:

July 12. 1 p.m. in the library. Learn the art of court dancing with Gina Malsky, director of dance at College Misericordia. Her ladies of the court will present a short program and then demonstrate dances.

July 23. (TBA). Join local members of the S.C.A. as they demonstrate some of the arts and pageantry of the Middle Ages, and find out whether there really were dragons and unicorns.

July 27. 1 p.m. in the library. Bring your imagination to the library and make a royal hennin (princess hat) or crown for court presentation.

Aug. 12. 1 p.m. in the library. A final party will celebrate your reading eight books and receiving a royal certificate. Refreshments will be served in Mrs. Rudolph's gazebo. Receive a bendable royal figure.

Lake Township recycling July 9

The voluntary recycling dropoff center for Lake Township accepts items from 10 a.m. to noon on the second Saturday of each month. The center is at the township building on Rt. 29. The following items may be dropped off: aluminum and bi-metal cans, clear, brown and green glass, plastic #1 and #2 only. No motor oil containers or scrap aluminum can be accepted. Newspaper will be collected this month. Pack tight in paper bags with glossy inserts removed. Do not drop off items before the center opens.
