

Dallas Middle School students honored

During a recent awards day assembly at the Dallas Middle School, three students, Drew Schaub, Meghan Pietraccini and Monica Esopi were honored by the Dallas Education Association with an award certificate and a savings bond. These students were selected by a faculty committee for having attained and maintained academic excellence by earning the highest grade level Q.P.A. for the first three marking periods of the 2004-05 school year. Front row, from left: Schaub, Pietraccini and Esopi. Back row: Assistant Principal Thomas J. Duffy, teacher Jonelle Cavill, Guidance Counselor Raelene Olszewski, Guidance Counselor Michael Shevock, and teacher Dan Flynn.

Feinstein, Grossman win Sem Sprague scholarships

Wyoming Seminary juniors Ross Feinstein and Sofie Grossman, of Shavertown, were among eight students to receive the 2005-2006 Levi Sprague Fellowship.

Awarded annually to commemorate the 70-year tenure of Wyoming Seminary's fourth president, the fellowship honors student leaders in academic, athletic and extracurricular life. It also brings day and boarding communities together by bringing some day students into the dorms.

Selection as a Levi Sprague Fellow is the highest honor which the school bestows for leadership. Recognized students receive full room and board for their senior year.
