Pastor Dennis Madeira and his wife Lucille listen to one of many testimonies during their "Send-Off Service."

Madeiras hand over reins at New Life Community Church

Joy and sadness mixed at a "Send-Off Service" at New Life Community Church for Pastor Dennis and Lucille Madeira on Sunday June 26. Pastor Madeira and Lucille founded New Life Community Church, on Brace Road in Orange, 26 years ago, but they are leaving active Pastoral ministry and stepping out with a new ministry called "Maximize Life." Their congregation honored them with special music, testimonials based on their appreciation for their many years of service and the legacy they leave behind. Pastor and Mrs. Madeira will continue to use the Wyoming Valley as their home base as they reach out across the country with "Maximize Life." The Madeiras are offering biblically based counseling to individuals and couples, ministry to local churches, parenting seminars, workshops, marriage retreats, men's and women's retreats and speaking engagements. Taking over the pastoral responsibilities at New Life Community Church are Pastor Gideon Gaitano, and his wife Robin. The Gaitanos come from Crossway International Community Church in Maryland. Gaitano has his master's degree from Regent University in Virginia. He and his wife married in 1992 and have three children, Gaebriel, Avaree and Zachery. For more information, call 639-2466.
