change." The diversity of the languages offered last year led to an interesting example of historical enemies becoming friends when Hebrew was being taught right across the hall from the Arabic class. "And that's the way it should be," said Einat Davidowitz, the Hebrew teacher who was born and raised in Israel. The Arabic teacher and Davidowitz became friends and eventually realized that their grandparents came from the same place - Old Jerusalem.

"To me as an Israeli, that was the ultimate," said Davidowitz.

The EFLA hasn't attracted any students to its classes in Hindi and Farsi, but Neeta Sharma of Dallas hopes that will change this year.

"Everyone knows that we are

"I feel that if we start them at a young age we'll open their minds to travel and to learn about other cultures."

outsourcing jobs to India, but not many people know anything at all about that country," said Sharma. "I will teach them about India and its customs as I teach them Hindi, which is the main language of India."

The teachers agreed the language institute is a good way for them to contribute to their community.

"Through language we are trying to bring our community together," said Sharma. The teachers also feel that knowing another language gives a person an edge in life. And the sooner it can be learned, the better. "It is a known fact that they younger you start, the more fluent you will become," said Fike.

Back Mountain residents who wish to register for the fall semester can do so by sending a check for $100 payable to the Elementary Foreign Language Academy, c/o Candyce Fike, Dallas High School, P.O. Box 2000, Dallas, Pa. 18612. The registration deadline is Aug. 15.

Be sure to include the child's name, address, phone, parent or guardian name, language choice and availability Monday through Thursday.

The fall semester will run from Sept. 12 through Nov. 14. The spring semester will be held from Jan. 9 to March 13.
