Blood drive at The Meadows

The Meadows Nursing Center, Dallas, will sponsor an American Red Cross blood drive from 1-6 p.m. Aug. 12 in the center's first-floor, multi-purpose room on Lake Street. The donor area is air conditioned. Every two seconds, someone in America needs some type of blood product in order to survive. Community support is needed to help The Meadows meet its donor goal of 50 units of blood. For more information, call the volunteer department at 675-8600.

Red Cross plans blood drive

The State Farm Insurance Company will sponsor a Red Cross Blood Drive from 1-6 p.m. Wednesday at the Fellowship Evangelical Church on Hildebrandt Road, Dallas. Every donor and will have an opportunity to win a compact disc by country music star Tim McGraw and will automatically be entered into a drawing for an I-POD and free gasoline. The American Red Cross reminds donors that they are eligible to donate every 56 days. High school students from Dallas and Lake-Lehman who donated in April are eligible to donate again. Anyone 17 years of age, weighing at least 110 pounds and in good health may donate blood. Bring photo identification to the blood drive.

DALLAS STUDENTS RECEIVE AMERICAN LEGION AWARD

FRESH AIR COMMITTEE THANKS COMMUNITY FOR SUPPORT

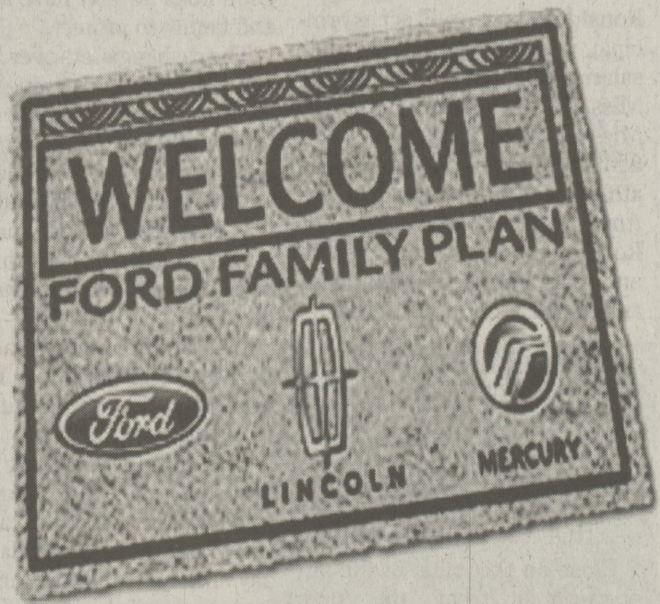

Children from New York City who recently visited the area for two weeks as part of the Fresh Air program have returned to the city. Members of the Wilkes-Barre-Dallas Fresh Air committee recently met to thank area residents and businesses for their support of the program. Committee members, from left, first row are Kim Sorber and Denise Moskaluk. Second row: Janice Seeley, Michelle Alguire and Lea-Ann Hardwick.

SCOUTS GET 'GOD AND ME' MEDAL

Back Mountain area Cub Scouts David Oley and Alex McCarthy of Pack 281 were recently awarded the God and Me religious medal at the Shavertown United Methodist Church. The award is the first step in the God and Country award program and fosters the student's understanding of their relationship with God. The award is earned by successfully completing assignments in the God and Me Student Workbook. Attending the award ceremony, from left, are Oley, Shavertown United Methodist Church senior pastor the Rev. Douglas Clark, and McCarthy.
