Fair queen contestants sought

The 43rd annual Luzerne County Fair will sponsor its official Fair Queen Pageant at 7 p.m. Sept. 2 at the fair grounds on Route 118 in Dallas/Lehman Township. All contestants must be a resident of Luzerne County, never married, and a female age 16-20.

Each contestant must submit a signed application and photograph with a written essay titled "What My County Fair Means To Me."

During the contest, each contestant will present a 1-2-minute promotional radio/TV slot along the theme, "Why You Should Come to the Luzerne County Fair." The contestants will be interviewed and questioned about the fair. Each contestant will also have a private interview with the judges.

The winner will appear at the 2005 Luzerne County Fair from Sept. 7-11 and will compete in the State Queen Pageant in January 2006 in Hershey.

All contestants will be judged on poise, personality and appearance. A $1,000 cash prize will be awarded to the winner in memory of the Carrie L. Martin Endowment, along with other prizes. The pageant coordinator is Deboraha Desiderio.

Applications may be obtained by calling Desiderio at 823-3743 or by stopping by the Barbizon School of Modeling, 41 Oxford Street in Wilkes-Barre. The deadline to enter is Aug. 28.

The following performers and events will perform at the fair grounds amphitheater during the four days of the fair.

An Old Time Fiddle Contest will be held at 6:30 p.m. Sept. 7, with $500 in prize money being awarded to the top fiddlers. The first prize is $250, second prize is $150 and third prize is $100. The event is open to the public and entry forms are available by calling Jim Chernavage at 829-5639.

Rick K. and the Allnighters will perform at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 8. The variety show band performs a hit parade of popular music spanning 50 years.

Also that night, an Antique and Classic Car Cruise by the Public Square Car Cruisers will be held at 6:30 p.m..

XCOUNTRY, a modern country party band, will perform at 7:30 p.m. and 9:30 p.m. Sept. 9. The band plays the tunes of Tomby Keith, Alan Jackson, Tim McGraw and Garth Brooks.

John Berry will take the stage at 8 p.m. Sept. 10. The country singer is touring to support his latest album "I Give My Heart." Berry has earned multiple gold and platinum albums from the Country Music Association and the Academy of Country Music.

The popular Jimmy Sturr and his Orchestra will perform at 7 p.m. Sept. 11.

The band is on the top 10 list of all-time Grammy Awards, winning 14 Grammys.

VAN DEUTSCH CHILDREN DISPLAY COLLECTIONS

Ashlyn, Corlyn and Bryce Van Deutsch of Trucksville are displaying their collections in the case at the Back Mountain Memorial Library. The items will be on display through Aug. 31 at the library, which is located on Huntsville Road in Dallas. Ashlyn, 12, has some beautiful clothing that was made in China. The clothing was provided by an uncle who lives in that country. The seventh-grader at the Dallas Middle School also collects stamps from mail received from friends and their families in the United States and abroad. Corlyn, 9, collects stuffed animals from each state - a cheetah from an Ohio zoo, a wolf from SeaWorld, and a horse from Chincoteague Island, Va., to name a few. She is a fourth grade student at Dallas Elementary School. Bryce, 5, has a collection of Besse Pease Gutmann Christmas ornaments from Ashton Drake. The girls are also displaying some of the clothes their paternal grandmother has knit for them throughout the years. Bryce Van Deutsch stands in front of her sister Ashlyn near the display case at the library.

The 21st annual Summer Craft Festival will be held Aug. 28 at the Penn State/Wilkes-Barre campus in Lehman Township.

Arts at Hayfield sets summer festival

The Arts at Hayfield will hold its 21st annual Summer Craft Festival from 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 28 at the Penn State/Wilkes-Barre campus in Lehman Township. The event features arts and crafts, music and performances, crafter demonstrations, children's activities, and food. Last year's festival attracted more than 4,000 people.

The performers include a Dixieland band, 11:30 a.m. on the stage; Tang Soo Do demonstration, noon; guitar ensemble featuring Scott Henry, 1 p.m.; children's songs and stories, 1 p.m. in the gazebo; Back Mountain Theater Group, 2:30 p.m.; juggler Bob Smith, 3 p.m.; folk/rock group Just Us, 3:30 p.m.

The demonstrations include calligraphy from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. near the gazebo, and blacksmithing from noon to 4 p.m. near the gymnasium. There will also be watercolor art, wheat weaving and wood carving, pottery, and acrylic painting demonstrations throughout the day.

The Friedman Observatory will be open and tours of Hayfield House begin at 11 a.m. The bookstore will be open all day.

Arts at Hayfield supports the fine arts, crafts and cultural performances in the Back Mountain and Wyoming Valley. The non-profit organization is comprised of volunteers from the community, as well as faculty and staff members of Penn State/Wilkes-Barre.

Money raised from previous festivals has been used for the campus poetry festival, Great Books, many theatrical and musical performances, and a $1,000 scholarship for academically and artistically gifted students.

A $1 donation for anyone age 12 and older is requested at the festival. For more information about the event or Arts at Hayfield, call 675-9232.
