

Sports Week

HIGH SCHOOL GOLF

On course for success

Lake-Lehman's Bryan Cardillo blasts out of a sand trap on the second hole at Huntsville Golf Club during a match against Bishop O'Reilly.

FOR THE POST/CHARLOTTE BARTIZEK

TIMES LEADER STAFF PHOTO/AIMEE DILGER

Dallas residents Brandon Wills and Jeff Clemente, members of the Bishop Hoban golf team, discuss possible putts on the third hole of Wednesday's match against Dallas.

The Wyoming Valley Conference high school golf season got under way this week, with several Back Mountain private school students helping to lead their respective teams to victories against Dallas and Lake-Lehman.

The defending champion Bishop Hoban golf team edged out a 199-205 win against Dallas on Wednesday at the Wilkes-Barre Golf Club, thanks to the efforts of Dallas residents Jeff Clemente, Brandon Wills, Mike Clemente and Greg Nothstein.

Steve Sabol led Dallas, while Ryan Francini, Joe Bevevino, Adam King and Scott Grundowski were the other low scorers for the Mountaineers.

Earlier in the week, Trucksville resident Zach Aciekewicz carded a low score of 39 to lead Bishop O'Reilly to a 179-205 win against Lake-Lehman. Shavertown resident Dan Gosart was the third lowest scorer for the Queensmen.

Lake-Lehman was led by Chris Jones, Justin Eimers, Steve Cornia and Brian Cardillo.

Previews of the Dallas and Lake-Lehman golf teams will appear in a special Fall Sports Preview section in the Sept. 4 edition of The Post.

TIMES LEADER STAFF PHOTO/AIMEE DILGER

Brandon Wills lines up a putt.

SPORTS BRIEFS

Soccer team sets Meet the Team Night

The Dallas High School boys soccer team will hold its annual Meet the Team Night at 4:45 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 1 at the high school. All parents, family members and supporters of Dallas soccer are encouraged to attend.

Newberry ladies hold golf outing

The Newberry Ladies Golf League recently held its August outing at the Emanon Golf Course in Falls with a captain and crew format. The winning teams were: Micky Aicher, Terry Cook, Mary Moran and Helen Davis, first place; and Janet Dent, Joyce Mallory, Alice Niskey and Marie Kruska, second place.

Romaine Kunkle and Connie Brewer were co-chairwomen of the event.

The September outing will be held Sept. 23 at Morgan Hill Golf Course in Hunlock Creek. League members should contact Nancy Brown or Peg Mihalick to register.

Registration set for DYB league

Dallas Youth Basketball will hold registration for its boys and girls winter leagues from noon to 4 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 10 and 7-9 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 13 at the Wycallis Elementary School.

Players in grades 3 through 8 who reside in the Dallas School District are eligible. All players will be required to participate in a fund-raiser with a buyout option. For more information, call George Gracely at 639-1467.

Wanek, Patrick, Shaffer, Gattuso shine in openers

Editor's note: The following game results were supplied to The Post. Youth football and soccer league are encouraged to e-mail their results and league standings. For game results, coaches should read the following information and follow the style and format. For more information, e-mail editor Dave Konopki at thepost@leader.net.

Bret Wanek scored three touchdowns as the Dallas Junior Mounts B team defeated Kingston Township, 22-6, on Sunday afternoon at Mountaineer Stadium in a Wyoming Valley West Youth Football season-opener for both teams. Wanek scored on touchdowns runs of 40 and 62 yards, and also pulled in a 55-yard pass reception.

The Raiders played well despite the loss, with David Gawlas scoring on a 71-yard run in the third quarter. Quincy Patrick and Neil Shaver also ran the ball well for Kingston Township, while Justin Rivero, Chris Ostrum, Luke Edwards and Robbie Boedecker played well on the defensive side of the ball.

C Division
Kingston Township 4
Dallas 8

Corey Patrick and Jesse Shaffer combined to rush for more than 175 yards and Patrick added two touchdown runs to lead the Raiders. Shaffer added a two-point conversion run.

The offensive line of Mike Oleginski, J.T. Carey, Kyle Kotulski, Josh Weaver, Domenic Oliveri, Joe Stier and Ed Meszczynski opened holes on both scoring drives while Carey and Matt Doggett added two sacks each defensively. Patrick and Weaver were named offensive players of the game, while Omar Nijmeh and Shaffer were named defensive players of the game for the Raiders.

For Dallas, Ryan Zapoticky connected with Nick Luzetski on a 41-yard touchdown pass and John Hutchins added the two-point conversion run.

D Division
Kingston Township 14
Dallas 0

Tanner Gattuso rushed for two touchdowns and a two-point conversion as the Kingston Township Raiders defeated the Junior Mounts. The Kingston Township offensive line of Ryan Martin, Mitch Kelly, Jason Anderson and Ray Anthony Ostroski provided key blocks throughout the game.

Defensively, the Raiders were able to hold the Mounts scoreless, led by the play of Ryan Martin, Jason Anderson and Ricky Morgan, Peter Capitano, Kyle Piskorik, David Edwards and Bret Stors.

Kingston Township's Corey Patrick tries to outrun a Dallas defender during a Wyoming Valley West Youth Football League C team game last weekend.

Kingston Township's Dave Gawlas gets some running room during last weekend's B team game against the Dallas Junior Mounts.